

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Starting July 2024

SPECIAL EDUCATION LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Fordham University Special Education Leadership Institute (SELI) will develop highly qualified educational leaders for school and district special education leadership positions. This program is offered in partnership with the Putnam | Northern Westchester BOCES' Center for Educational Leadership.

Topics covered include:

- Special Education Practices, Services, and Issues
- Management and Operations of Special Education Services
- Vision, Integration, and Systems for Special Education

Upon successful completion of the program, candidates will receive a Certificate from Fordham University.

SECURE YOUR SEAT NOW!
CLICK OR SCAN TO APPLY

PROGRAM FORMAT: Consists of virtual synchronous sessions, scheduled twice weekly in July 2024 and weekly in the Fall 2024.

PROGRAM COST: $2,750, which includes books and materials for each session.

WHO SHOULD APPLY:

- Building leaders who oversee or manage Special Education programs (e.g. CSE Chairs, assistant principals, principals).
- New and aspiring educational leaders seeking to enhance their knowledge and skills for supervising school and district special education programs.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Dr. Margaret Terry Orr

CHAIR, DIVISION OF EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP EDUCATION AND POLICY, FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

morr4@fordham.edu

Dr. Lynn Allen

DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT
PUTNAM | NORTHERN WESTCHESTER BOCES

lallen@pnwboces.org

Tasha Wright

COORDINATOR OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP
PUTNAM | NORTHERN WESTCHESTER BOCES

twright@pnwboces.org