

Dr. Fischer retired as the Director of Special Education from the Brewster Central School District after 37 years in the field of special education. Her extensive experience in special education includes her early work as a special education teacher, educational evaluator, CSE Chairperson, Assistant Director of Pupil Personnel Services, and the Director of Pupil Personnel Services in the Brewster Central School District and the Enlarged City School District of Middletown. At the district level, she had been actively involved in a variety of task forces in the areas such as Special Education, Mental Health, and MTSS. Selena holds a BS in Psychology from Mount Saint Mary College, a MS in Special Education from SUNY New Paltz, an SDA from SUNY New Paltz, and a PhD in Special Education Leadership from Capella University. In addition, she currently serves on the Board of Directors for the New York State Council of Administrators of Special Education as a Co Vice President. She currently works at PNW BOCES and Education & Management Services as a special education consultant.